SAFE AND SECURE

First you should know that when you purchase your insurance through Aegis General Insurance Agency, your policy is backed by an insurance company with the financial strength, history and reinsurance support necessary to ensure its claim paying capability. In addition to solid financials, Aegis General only utilizes insurance companies that operate on an admitted basis, meaning the company and products have passed a higher level of regulatory oversight than so-called surplus or non-admitted products.

LOCAL SUPPORT

With offices in the heart of Silicon Valley in Northern California and in San Diego, Aegis General is known for innovative insurance products for homes, condos and townhomes, whether you own or rent.
