QuoteWell combines AI-powered automation with human expertise to get you a competitive, bindable quote, fast.

BENEFITS OF A PREFERRED RISK SUBMISSION

- Automated email prompts to ensure your submission is complete upfront, reducing the need for back-and-forth
- Our AI model reads your submission and responds with feedback in as little as an hour, so you know what's next
- Instant access to check the status of your submission in our portal, 24/7

HOW IT WORKS

1. Submit your risk: complete a short intake form or email us your risk details.
2. Get feedback: our technology automatically helps you build your complete submission with the help of AI.
3. Get your marketing plan: with a completed submission, our human brokers jump into action to bring your marketing plan to life.
4. Receive your quote: quotes are generated as quickly as same-day turnaround for markets where we have binding authority.
5. Bind with QuoteWell: our high-touch team of underwriters will make sure your compliance documentation is in order and support you through the binding process.
